Vide references cited above, provisional seniority list of all specialities is communicated by this office duly calling for objections. The objections by the individuals with regard to provisional seniority were examined as per the rule position and necessary corrections were made and the seniority lists of all specialities are finalised.

The above seniority list is based on the judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India referred to above.

Preamble

1. The seniority list is based on A.P. Medical Education Service Rules issued vide G.O.Ms.No.154.
2. The Seniority of any doctor is based on the date of appointment as Assistant Professor in the said speciality.
3. While fixing the seniority, the Rule of Reservations is not applicable at this stage.
4. Objections with reference to promotions to higher posts such as Associate Professors and Professors were not considered since the issue on hand is only with reference to the seniority in the category of Assistant Professors of concerned specialities.
5. With reference to the seniority in Super Speciality category, the date of appointment in the super speciality is mentioned.
6. For the 1982 batch, the APPSC rank was observed as per merit. However the DME/ Govt. had given permission to complete the course/ examination and those candidates who joined after completion of the course/ examination and their ranking will be maintained and retained as per the original merit list of APPSC 1982 batch.
7. For the 1985 batch the APPSC ranking was observed as per merit. However some of the candidates have not joined within the stipulated period, Govt. had issued a memo No. 1573/B2/2003-4 HM&FW (B2) Dept., dt. 26.7.2003, stating the cut of date of joining as 31.8.1986. Those candidates who joined after that date will be enblocked and kept below the main list as on that date.

The seniority lists as per G.O.Ms.No.325 dated 05.06.1999 of clinical, Non clinical, Super Specialities are hereby put on the official web site of DME – <http://dme.ap.nic.in>

Doctors are advised to bring any typographical errors to the notice of the undersigned so that it may be corrected:

If any person is aggrieved then an appeal will lie to the State Government under Rule 26 of AP State and Subordinate Service Rules.
