4.1 After qualifying the Examination in lieu of Mercy Chance:

- The candidate shall be permitted to appear for the GNM Board Examination within one year.

4.2 Maximum attempts permitted for the GNM Board Examination:

- Two attempts (one regular and one supplementary) in a year, as per INC guidelines.

4.3 Failure to pass the GNM Board Examination within the stipulated time and attempts shall result in cessation of eligibility, and no further relaxation shall be granted.

5. Examination Schedule and Conduct:

5.1 The Board shall notify:

- Examination schedule,
- Application procedure,
- Examination fee,
- Centres for theory and practical examinations.

5.2 The conduct of examinations shall follow:

- Existing Board norms for confidentiality, invigilation, valuation, and moderation.
- Standard malpractice prevention and disciplinary procedures.

6. Evaluation and Declaration of Results:

6.1 Evaluation shall be carried out as per:

- Board-approved valuation schemes, and
- INC norms for minimum pass criteria.

6.2 Only candidates who pass both theory and practical examinations shall be declared as passed.

7. Issue of Certificates and Registration:

7.1 On successful completion of the GNM Board Examination:

- The candidate shall be issued a GNM pass certificate by the Board.
- The candidate shall be eligible for registration with the State Nursing Council as per prevailing rules.

8. Prohibitions and Clarifications:

8.1 Mercy Chance:

- Does not apply to candidates who discontinued or rejoined the course.
- Does not allow completion of training hours beyond the maximum time limit.

8.2 No representation shall be entertained for:

- Extension of time beyond Indian Nursing Council limits,
- Additional attempts beyond those prescribed.

9. Power to Interpret:

9.1 In case of any ambiguity:

- The decision of the Board, in conformity with INC guidelines, shall be final.

9.2 Matters not specifically covered herein shall be governed by:

- INC regulations, and
- Existing Board examination rules.

10. Other Conditions:

- New Regulations –I Students should appear both theory and practical examination in the Syllabus of New Regulations-I.
- New Regulations –II Students should appear both theory and practical examination in the Syllabus of New Regulations-II.
