

Osmania Medical College. The inception of this college was in 1946. Located in Hyderabad, Andhra Pradesh, the college is affiliated to NTR University of Health Sciences, while it was previously affiliated to the Osmania University of Hyderabad. Osmania Medical College Hyderabad is the only educational institution in India (and possibly the world), where every medical specialty has a separate training hospital. Initially, the college was called the Nizam's Medical School in 1846. Later in 1920, the medical school was transformed into a medical college. The present campus at Koti was opened in 1964.

The following hospitals fulfill the role of teaching hospitals for Osmania Medical College.
